

The law & Gospel method of Bible study is the Church's traditional way to study the Bible, which was popularized by Martin Luther. Law & Gospel Bible study makes a distinction between God's two main Biblical themes: law & Gospel. God's law theme identifies our sin, by revealing what God wants us to do that we don't do. God's Gospel theme identifies our need for Jesus the Savior, and reveals how God's love offers us salvation through Christ.

STEP ONE PRAY FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT TO REVEAL GOD'S VOICE THROUGH THE TEXT:

"Father, let your law and Gospel voice renew our love, faith, and hope."

STEP TWO READ THE TEXT REPEATEDLY UNTIL YOU CAN TELL IT IN YOUR OWN WORDS:

Matthew 11:2-11 (See the reverse side of the worksheet for the printed Gospel text)

STEP THREE REVIEW A STUDY BIBLE TO DETERMINE THE TEXT'S THEOLOGICAL MEANING:

In this Gospel Jesus in engages in his public ministry. It describes a crisis in his ministry. He has been teaching, preaching, and healing and the question that everybody is wondering who he is? Is he the Messiah we are expecting? John's question from prison helps Jesus explain the kind of Messiah he is. He is the one who is to come; the Messiah, and the miracles he performs prove it. However, he is not the political Messiah that many are expecting. He brings liberation of a different kind. As Jesus was baptized, it became clear that his way of being a Messiah was completely contrary to the expectation of John the Baptist and of everyone else as well. Jesus does not impose the Kingdom through power or prestige (Matt 4:1-11) but rather through submission to the will of God as expressed in the Scriptures. He breaks with the past in many ways. Evil will not be repaid by evil. Goodness will be the standard (Matt 5:38-48). Jesus cares for the poor and the sick and calls disciples to join him in this work or mercy. No fierce judge, no destruction or the wicked! To have faith means to trust that God knows the implications of all the events of our lives and to understand them as part of God's plan of salvation for us.

Matthew 11:2-11 ²When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples ³and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?" ⁴Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: ⁵the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. ⁶And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me." ⁷As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? ⁸What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. ⁹What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. ¹⁰This is the one about whom it is written, 'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.' ¹¹Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

STEP FOUR COMPLETE A LAW & GOSPEL BIBLE STUDY TO Restore Hope in the Savior

Law Question: How does this text reveal our sin (self-centeredness) and how we do not live as God desires?

STEP FIVE PRAYERFULLY MEDITATE UPON GOD'S GOSPEL VOICE: Restoring Our Hope

A. Quieting Our Inner Sanctuary: We quiet our hearts (souls) by focusing on our breathing. Breathe in slowly to the count of five (J-E-S-U-S)...hold your breath to a count of six (C-H-R-I-S-T)...exhale to a count of seven (T-H-E-L-O-R-D). Repeat this pattern of breathing until you are relaxed.

B. Dwelling within Our Inner Sanctuary: We meet the Lord Jesus in the sanctuary of our hearts (souls), which is a place created within our mind's eye for us to be with the Lord. Using our favorite sights, sounds, smells and feelings, we visualize our inner sanctuary as a place of peace where the Lord Jesus meets us.

C. Listening to God's Voice in Scripture Speak to Us through Jesus: As Jesus meets us in our inner sanctuary, he lovingly shares God's Gospel message of hope from the Scripture text we have just studied. Listening to God's Gospel voice restores our trust and hope that Jesus' death and resurrection freely offers us eternal Salvation. When Jesus speaks to us, our souls are nourished and refreshed.
